Retired – Vice President – Asia-Pacific Manufacturing and General Manager - Jeep Joint Venture in China

“My Global Experiences and Thoughts about my time with FCA.”

Joseph Ozdowy - Bio

Joe Ozdowy is one of a small group of Chrysler executives who has spent most of his 35 years of experience working outside of his home country. Born and raised in Detroit and its suburbs, Joe knew that he was going to be an automotive engineer since grade school. Joe started his career as a Test and Development Engineer in Highland Park and then held a variety of positions in Windsor, Argentina, Beijing, Delaware, Toronto, Sterling Heights, Auburn Hills, and Brazil. His last assignment was in Shanghai China where he held dual roles: V.P of Asia-Pacific Manufacturing and GM of our Jeep Joint Venture in China. Joe retired in 2019 and will share his global experiences and thoughts during our Oct 2021 meeting.
